

Category	Variable
Basics	Song
	Artist
	Date
	Weeks at Number One
	Non-Consecutive
Rating	Rating 1
	Rating 2
	Rating 3
	Overall Rating
	Divisiveness
Label Info	Label
	Parent Label
Genre	CDR Genre
	CDR Sub-Genre
	Discogs Genre
	Discogs Style
Artist Info	Artist Structure
	Featured Artists
	Multiple Lead Vocalists
	Group Named After Non-Lead Singer
	Talent Show Contestant
	Posthumous
	Artist Place of Origin
	Front Person Age
	Artist Male
	Artist White
	Artist Black
	Songwriters
Songwriter Info	Songwriters w/o Interpolation & Sample Credits
	Songwriter Male

Category	Variable
Producer Info	Songwriter White
	Artist is a Songwriter
	Artist is Only Songwriter
	Producers
	Producer Male
	Producer White
	Artist is a Producer
	Artist is Only Producer
	Songwriter is a Producer
	Time Signature
Musical Info	Keys
	Simplified Key
	BPM
	Energy
	Danceability
	Happiness
	Loudness (dB)
	Acousticness
	Vocally Based
	Bass Based
Instrument Info	Guitar Based
	Piano Based
	Orchestral Strings
	Horns/Winds
	Accordion
	Banjo
	Bongos
	Clarinet
	Cowbell
	Falsetto Vocal
	Flute/Piccolo

Category	Variable
	Handclaps/Snaps
	Harmonica
	Human Whistling
	Kazoo
	Mandolin
	Pedal/Lap Steel
	Ocarina
	Saxophone
	Sitar
	Trumpet
	Ukulele
	Violin
	Sound Effects

Song Structure

Structural Info	Rap Verse in a Non-Rap Song
	Length (Sec)
	Instrumental
	Instrumental Length (Sec)
	Intro Length (Sec)
	Vocal Introduction
	Free Time Vocal Introduction
	Fade Out
	Live
	Cover
	Sample
	Interpolation
	Inspired by a Different Song

Category	Variable
Lyrical Info	Lyrics
	Lyrical Topic
	Lyrical Narrative
	Spoken Word
	Explicit
	Foreign Language
	Written for a Play
Association with Non-Musical Media	Featured in a Then Contemporary Play
	Written for a Film
	Featured in a Then Contemporary Film
	Written for a T.V. Show
Misc.	Featured in a then Contemporary T.V. Show
	Associated with Dance
	Topped the Charts by Multiple Artist
	Double A Side
	Eurovision Entry
	U.S. Artwork

Note

If a variable has multiple values, they are separated by a comma.

Description

Song Name

Artist Name

First Week to Hit Number One

Collective (Consecutive and Non-Consecutive) Weeks at Number One

Dummy for if it were number one in non-consecutive weeks

Rating between 1 and 10, inclusive, provided by judge 1

Subjective rating between 1 and 10, inclusive, provided by judge 2

Subjective rating between 1 and 10, inclusive, provided by judge 3

Sample mean of Rating 1, Rating 2, and Rating 3

Average absolute pairwise distance between all ratings, ranging from 0.0 to 6.0, inclusive

Record Label that released the song

The larger label or entity that owns the label that released the song, if any Genre as assigned by Chris Dalla Riva and Vinnie Christopher.

Sub-genre as assigned by Chris Dalla Riva and Vinnie Christopher.

Genre as assigned by Discogs.com. See <https://blog.discogs.com/en/genres-and-styles/> for more information.

Style as assigned by Discogs.com. Style is Discogs' equivalent of sub-genre. If there is no style listed, "None" is listed. See <https://blog.discogs.com/en/genres-and-styles/> for more information.

0 means it is a group of three or more people. 1 means it is a solo act. 2 means it is a duo. If the number is followed by 0.5, then it means that there is at least one featured artist listed.

List of notable featured artists, along with what they did on the track, whether they were credited or not.

Dummy for if the song contains multiple people singing/rapping the lead vocal

Dummy for if the group is named after someone who isn't the lead singer (e.g., The J. Geils Band is named for the lead guitar player, not the singer)

Notes if the artist became well known through a television talent competition. If so, the talent competition is listed (e.g., American Idol)

Dummy for if the artist were dead when the song got to number one

The country that the artist was born in.

Age of the frontperson or bandleader on the song. If there are multiple, the average is taken. This is not necessarily the lead singer. If blank, then the age(s) could not be accurately located or age did not make sense (i.e., the band was animated).

Dummy for if the artist were a male or a group of males at the time of the release. If 0, the artist or group was all female. If 1, the artist or group was all male. If 2, the artist has a mix of males and females. If 3, the artist contains at least one non-binary person.

Dummy for if the artist was white. If 0, the artist was not white. If 1, the artist was white. If 2, the artist has members that are both white and not white. For more information on racial categories, see <https://www.census.gov/topics/population/race/about.html>.

Dummy for if the artist was black, meaning that their ancestry was of African origin. If 0, the artist was not black. If 1, the artist was black. If 2, the artist has members that are both black and not black. For more information on racial categories, see <https://www.census.gov/topics/population/race/about.html>.

Songwriters from BMI/ASCAP Songview database. If they do not have the information, it comes from The Billboard Book of Number One Hits by Fred Bronson. If Bronson does not have the information, it comes from Spotify song credits.

Songwriters from "Songwriters" field, excluding credits for writers who are being interpolated or sampled.

Dummy for if the songwriter were a male or a group of males at the time of the release. If 0, the songwriter or group of songwriters was all female. If 1, the songwriter or group of songwriters was all male. If 2, the songwriters were a mix of males and females. If 3, the songwriters were a mix of males, females, and non-binary persons.

Description

Dummy for if the songwriters were white. If 0, the songwriters were not white. If 1, the songwriters were white. If 2, the songwriters has members that are both white and not white. For more information on racial categories, see <https://www.census.gov/topics/population/race/about.html>.

Dummy for if the Artist is one of the songwriters

Dummy for if the Artist is the only songwriter

Producers from Tidal's production credits. If Tidal doesn't have the information, it comes from Fred Bronson's The Billboard Book of Number One Hits. If Bronson does not have the information, it comes from Spotify production credits.

Dummy for if the producer were a male or a group of males at the time of the release. If 0, the producer or producers were all female. If 1, the producer or producers were all male. If 2, the producers were a mix of males and females. If 3, the songwriters were a mix of males, females, and non-binary persons.

Dummy for if the producers were white. If 1, the producers were not white. If 0, the producers were not white. If 2, the producers were composed of both white and not white persons. For more information on racial categories, see <https://www.census.gov/topics/population/race/about.html>.

Dummy for if the Artist is one of the producers

Dummy for if the artist is the only producer

Dummy for if one of the songwriters is one of the producers

Time Signature

Key that most captures a song. Key changes are separated by a semi-colon. A percent sign (%) indicates that the song never returns to its original key. An ampersand (&) indicates an energy key change, or a key change that takes the song either up one or two half steps.

If the song has a single key, it is again listed here. If it has multiple keys "Multiple Keys" is listed unless the only key change is an energy key change. In that case, the first key is listed.

Beats per minute as provided by Spotify

Energy measure from 0 to 100 as provided by Spotify

Danceability measure from 0 to 100 as provided by Spotify

Happiness measure from 0 to 100 as provided by Spotify

Loudness measured in decibels as provided by Spotify

Probability between 0 and 100 that a song is acoustic from Spotify

Dummy for if the song is largely based around a vocal. This does not indicate if the song has a vocal, just if the arrangement is largely fleshed out by human voice, like "Don't Worry Be Happy" by Bobby McFerrin or "Blue Moon" by The Marcels. Please note that the vocal can be a sample (e.g., "Slow Jamz" by Kanye West)

Dummy for if the song is largely based around a bass guitar or synth. This does not indicate if the song has a bass, just if the arrangement is largely fleshed out by bass.

Dummy for if the song is largely based around a guitar. This does not indicate if the song has a guitar, just if the arrangement is largely fleshed out by guitar.

Dummy for if the song is largely based around a piano or a keyboard. This does not indicate if the song has a piano or keyboard, just if the arrangement is largely fleshed out by one of those instruments.

Dummy for if the song contains a string section

Dummy for if the song contains a horn and/or wind section

Dummy for if the song contains an accordion

Dummy for if the song contains a banjo

Dummy for if the song contains bongos

Dummy for if the song contains a clarinet

Dummy for if the song contains a cowbell

Dummy for if the song contains a falsetto vocal

Dummy for if the song contains a flute or piccolo

Description

Dummy for if the song contains handclaps or snaps

Dummy for if the song contains a harmonica

Dummy for if the song contains human whistling

Dummy for if the song contains a kazoo

Dummy for if the song contains a mandolin

Dummy for if the song contains a pedal or lap steel

Dummy for if the song contains an ocarina

Dummy for if the song contains a saxophone

Dummy for if the song contains a sitar

Dummy for if the song contains a trumpet

Dummy for if the song contains a ukulele

Dummy for if the song contains a violin

Notes if the song contains any pre-recorded sound effects and, if so, what they are.

Captures the general structure of the song. 'A1' means only verses with no refrain. 'A2' means verses with a refrain at the beginning or end. 'A3' means a lyrical intro and then verses with a refrain at the beginning or end. 'A4' means a lyrical intro and then verses with no refrain. 'C1' means verse and chorus. 'C2' means a lyrical intro, verse, and chorus. 'C3' means verse, pre-chorus, chorus. 'C4' means verse, pre-chorus, chorus, post-chorus. 'C5' means verse, chorus, post-chorus. 'C6' means intro, verse, pre-chorus, chorus. 'C7' means intro, verse, pre-chorus, chorus, post-chorus. 'D1' means verse with a refrain at the beginning or end and a bridge. 'D3' means a lyrical intro then a verse with a refrain at the beginning or end and then a bridge. 'E1' means verse, chorus, and bridge. 'E2' means verse with a refrain at the beginning or end then a chorus and a bridge. 'E3' means a verse, pre-chorus, chorus, and bridge. 'E4' means a verse, pre-chorus, chorus, post-chorus, and bridge. 'E5' means a verse, chorus, post-chorus, and bridge. 'E6' means an Intro, Verse, Chorus, Bridge. 'E7' means verse with a refrain at the beginning or end then a pre-chorus, chorus, and bridge. 'F' means 4 or more sections. 'I' means it is an instrumental. If a structure has a 'V' at the end, it means that it is a non-rap song with a single rap verse.

Dummy for if the song contains at least one rapped verse despite not being a rap song

Song length in seconds

Dummy for if it is an instrumental. Note that if a song contains little to no vocals, it is still considered an instrumental (e.g., "Harlem Shake" by Baauer)

Length of time, in seconds, that does not contain a vocalist singing lyrics

Length of time, in seconds, before the first verse or chorus at the beginning of the song. Hooks are classified as introductions even if they repeat throughout.

Dummy for if a song contains a vocal introduction, meaning a vocal section that appears at the beginning of the song and then not again.

Dummy for if a song contains a free time vocal introduction, meaning a vocal section with tempo rubato that appears at the beginning of the song and then not again.

Dummy for if the song fades out

Dummy for if the song is a live recording from a concert

Dummy for if the song is a cover, meaning the artist did not write the song and they were not the first person/group to record the song.

Dummy for if the song contains samples the recording of another song. This does not include interpolation/recording of parts of other songs. If a song is an English translation of a song in another language, it is still considered a cover.

Dummy for if a song uses a musical or lyrical element from another existing song but re-records it themselves and is not a complete cover.

Dummy for if a song is a cover or contains sampled/interpolated elements

Description

Text of lyrics as provided by <http://azlyrics.com>. If <http://azlyrics.com> did not have the lyrics, then <http://genius.com> is used.

Main topic of lyrics as assigned by Author. For a list of topics, see <Lyrical Topics> tab.

Dummy for if the lyrics follow a narrative, meaning a story with a loose beginning, middle, and end

Dummy for if the song contains spoken word lyrics. Note this does not include rapped verses.

Dummy for if Spotify labels the song as explicit, if the song contains expletives, or if it is overly sexual, violent, or related to drugs for the time of its release. A word is considered an expletive if it is one of the following: 'ass', 'bastard', 'bitch', 'cock', 'cunt', 'damn', 'dick', 'faggot', 'fuck', 'hell', 'piss', 'shit', 'twat', all racial epithets, and all derivative words and phrases from this list.

Dummy for if there are any non-English lyrics.

Dummy for if the song was originally written for a play

Notes if the song was featured in a play around the time it topped the charts. If so, the play is listed. Please note that this does not mean the song was written for the play.

Dummy for if the song was originally written for a film

Notes if the song was featured in a film around the time it topped the charts. If so, the film is listed. Please note that this does not mean the song was written for the film.

Dummy for if the song was originally written for a T.V. show

Notes if the song was featured in a T.V. show around the time it topped the charts. If so, the T.V. show is listed. Please note that this does not mean the song was written for the T.V. show.

Dummy for if the song is known to have inspired people do a certain dance while it plays

Dummy for if separate recordings of the song got to number one by different artists

Notes if the song were considered a double A-sided single. If so, the other side of the record is listed.

Dummy for if the song was entered into the annual Eurovision music competition

Description of U.S. Single Artwork. "Cannot Find" means that the artwork could not be reliably located. All artwork before the year 2000 was located on <https://discogs.com>. Since digital music rose around that time, I begin consulting digital music stores and streaming services for artwork after 2000. If you would like to download the artwork, please follow this link.

parated by a semi-colon